Now imagine that water could be a solid, a liquid and a gas all the time and at the same time. In the same way, Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one and the same God.

1. Announce the Mystery
2. Pause to reflect on its significance
3. Formulate prayer intentions that relate to the Mystery (e.g. Nativity – Intention: for all children, especially newly born babies)
4. Recite the decade

How to pray the Rosary

Pray the Apostles' Creed (#6a) while holding the Crucifix. Then offer one Our Father (#6b) on the large bead and three Hail Mary's (#6c) on each of the three small beads for the Holy Father, the Pope. After the three Hail Mary's, pray the Glory Be (#7a), the Fatima Rosary Prayer (#7b), and the Consecration Prayer (#7c).

Select one group of Mysteries. Announce the first Mystery and meditate on it while praying one Our Father on the large bead and ten Hail Mary's on each of the ten small beads.

On the next large bead, pray the Glory Be, the Rosary Prayer, and the Consecration Prayer. Then, announce the second Mystery and begin again with the Our Father, ten Hail Mary's, etc. Continue until you have prayed all five decades.

To end the Rosary, pray the Hail Holy Queen (#2b) or the St. Joseph Prayer after the Rosary (#8).

6a. Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell, the third day He rose again from the dead, He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

6b. Our Father

Our Father Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

6c. Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

7a. Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

7b. Fatima Rosary Prayer

O My Jesus, forgive us our sins; save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who are in most need of Your mercy.

7c. All For Consecration Prayer

Can be said after each decade of the Rosary following 7b.

All for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, all in union with St. Joseph.

2b. Hail Holy Queen

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of mercy; our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning, and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

8. St. Joseph Prayer after the Rosary

Glorious St. Joseph, spouse of the Immaculate Virgin, obtain for me and all the members of my family and loved ones, a confident, sinless, generous, and patient heart, and perfect resignation to the Divine Will. Be our guide, father, and model throughout life, that we may merit a death like yours, in the arms of Jesus and Mary. Help us, St. Joseph, in our earthly strife, to fulfill our responsibilities and ever to lead a pure and blameless life. Amen.

Review of Memory Verses Activity

To solidify memorization and to experience how God's word is "living and active," cut up copies of the verses from the past eight weeks, provided on page 2. Put them in a container. At the evening meal, every person draws one, reads and replaces.

Instruct everyone to think about their verse the following day as God's special word to them for that day. At the succeeding evening meal, have each person share how their word spoke to them in the course of the day.

For little children, give them a simple phrase from their verse to repeat throughout the day. For example, "Your word is truth." or "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God."

Review of Memory Verses Activity

To solidify memorization and to experience how God's word is "living and active," cut up copies of the verses from the past eight weeks, provided on page 2. Put them in a container. At the evening meal, every person draws one, reads and replaces.

Instruct everyone to think about their verse the following day as God's special word to them for that day. At the succeeding evening meal, have each person share how their word spoke to them in the course of the day.

For little people, give them a simple phrase from their verse to repeat throughout the day. For example, "Know the greatness of His power in us." or "Though many, we are one body in Christ."

Sacrament Reminder

Go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation this week as a family. Spend a few minutes before the Blessed Sacrament to thank Him for His love and forgiveness. Celebrate together with a special meal or dessert afterwards.

After the movie or the story-telling night, ask the younger children what God told the Israelites to do on their last night in Egypt. Ask the older children how Jesus is like the Passover lamb.

You can also ask an older child to summarize the story of Moses and the Exodus to their younger siblings. Let them try to do as much as they can from memory, with others only helping if necessary. It will impress the others and stress the joy of knowing the Bible and their heritage.

John 6:27

Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you.

Family Activity

The food which perishes is overly important in wealthy cultures. Try a day of "humbling," accompanied by Mass attendance, when the family is served only ugali* for dinner.

Before the meal, pray:

Dear Jesus, thank you for the food that endures to eternal life, your Body and Blood. Thank you also for this meal, eaten daily by many brothers and sisters throughout the world. We partake of both with heartfelt gratitude.

* Recipe on following page.

UGALI – FOOD OF AFRICA

Ugali, a staple starch component of many African meals, is generally made from maize flour (or ground maize) and water, and varies in consistency from porridge to a dough-like substance.

The traditional method of eating ugali as a main course (and the most common in the rural areas) is to roll a lump into a ball with the right hand and then dip it into a sauce or stew of vegetables and/or meat. Making a depression with the thumb allows the ugali to be used to scoop, and to wrap around pieces of meat to pick them up in the same way that flat bread is used in other cultures.

Ugali is inexpensive to make and the flour can last for considerable time in average conditions. Also, the crops that produce the corn flour will grow reliably in poor seasons. For these reasons, ugali is an important part of the diet of millions of Africans.

KENYA FOR INSTANCE...

Kenya is a low-income, food-deficient country. Forty-three percent of the population lives in unconditional poverty. Many small farmers have an unreliable food security. Corn is the main staple in Kenya. It is made into porridge, called ugali, and mixed with other foods to make a stew. However, farm families often just eat the porridge plain because other foods cannot be obtained.

It is hard to find clean water, because good wells are miles from the home. If clean water cannot be afforded in jugs, many Kenyan women and girls will wait in a long line to use the public faucets. However, the water from these faucets is not often clean.

The food needs of children are related to their growth and development. It is important that all children, ages six and up get to eat from each of the five food groups everyday. Vegetables provide vitamin A, C, folic acid and minerals. Fruits can provide vitamin A, C and minerals. Dairy will provide protein and calcium for those growing bones. Breads and cereals will provide vitamin B, fiber, and energy from carbohydrates. Dried beans, meats, fish and poultry provide protein, iron and zinc. Clean drinking water is also a necessity.

UGALI RECIPE

Water	4 cups (more or less depending on desired consistency)
Salt	2 tsp
Cornmeal, white, finely ground	2 cups

Bring water and salt to a boil in a heavy-bottomed saucepan. Stir in cornmeal slowly, letting it fall though the fingers of your hand. Turn heat to medium-low, and continue stirring regularly and smashing any lumps until mush pulls away from the sides of the pot and becomes very thick, about 10 minutes. Allow to cool somewhat. Place into a serving bowl. Wet your hands with water, form into a ball and serve.

Review of Memory Verses Activity

To solidify memorization and to experience how God's word is "living and active," cut up copies of the verses from the past eight weeks, provided on page 2. Put them in a container. At the evening meal, every person draws one, reads and replaces.

Instruct everyone to think about their verse the following day as God's special word to them for that day. At the succeeding evening meal, have each person share how their word spoke to them in the course of the day.

For little children, give them a simple phrase from their verse to repeat throughout the day. For example, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations." or "Do not labor for the food which perishes."

Building Family Love

Begin this game by praying and asking God to open eyes and hearts to see what He sees.

Put all family members' names in a container and draw one out. The one whose name is drawn then draws another name. Now the first person is to tell the second person all the ways he sees God's love in him or her. When done, the second person is up. Repeat the process. When all names are drawn, the last person tells the first person how he sees God's love in him. The game is over. God is love!

Family Activity

- Play "Good Deeds Guessing Game" (Age 8 and up. Pair up smaller kids with the bigger kids). Cut apart the second list of the Commandments, Works of Mercy, etc. on the following pages. Place separate categories in envelopes or baggies. Choose two teams. Start with one category. Teams alternate and teammates take turns. The one who is "it" draws, and then tries to convey the message by acting it out (no words) to his teammates, who work from the master list and get three guesses. Score 3 points on first guess, 2 on second, 1 on third. Move on to another category. When everyone gets good (in weeks to come) put all categories together for drawing. Now the one who is "it" announces the category, then goes.
- In one of your dinner meals, go around the table and ask each person to thank the Lord for a blessing received during the past week. It is recommended to make this a family tradition during a weekend meal.
- Ask each of the children to go through their clothes and toys and choose the ones they would like to give away to others. As a family, go to either Goodwill or St. Vincent de Paul Society or to other charitable organizations and donate the items.

Review of Memory Verses Activity

To solidify memorization and to experience how God's word is "living and active," cut up copies of the verses from the past eight weeks, provided on page 2. Put them in a container. At the evening meal, every person draws one, reads and replaces.

Instruct everyone to think about their verse the following day as God's special word to them for that day. At the succeeding evening meal, have each person share how their word spoke to them in the course of the day.

For little children, give them a simple phrase from their verse to repeat throughout the day. For example, "His gifts are for building up the body of Christ." or "The righteous will go into eternal life."

28) John 14:15 If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

Memory Verses, Year A

1) John 17:15–17 “I am not asking you to remove them from the world, but to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in truth; your word is truth.”

2) John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”

3) Deuteronomy 6:4-5 Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

4) Sirach 17:2-3 He gave to men few days, a limited time, but granted them authority over the things upon the earth. He endowed them with strength like his own, and made them in his own image.

6) Sirach 21:10 The way of sinners is smoothly paved with stones, but at its end is the pit of Hades.

7) Galatians 4:4-5 But when the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

8) John 1:1, 14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God...And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

9) John 1:12-13 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God

10) 1 John 3:16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

11) Ephesians 1:19-20 That you may know... what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great might which he accomplished in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand in the heavenly places.

12) 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

17) Matthew 28:19-20 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age.

18) Ephesians 6:12 For we are not contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world rulers of this present darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

19) Ephesians 1:3-4 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him.
